1. The first colours which cannot be mixed from any other colours are known as the __________ colours.
2. The three primary colours are __________ and __________.
3. The type of colour which is made by mixing two primary colours together is known as a __________ colour.
4. The three secondary colours are __________ and __________.
5. The type of colour which is made by mixing the three primary colours is known as a __________ colour.
6. There are many variations of tertiary colours but most are associated with the dull, "earth" type colours such as __________.
7. Red, orange and yellow are associated with this feeling. __________.
8. Blue, green and purple are associated with this feeling. __________.
9. Colours which go well together. When placed together in a picture they create a soothing, agreeable mood. __________.
10. Colours which do not go well together. When placed together in a picture they create a lively, vibrant mood. __________.
11. A series of colours chosen for a particular purpose is known as a __________.