TONE HOMEWORK QUESTIONS

WORD TEST PREPARATION

1. Degrees of lightness or darkness __________.
2. Very dark (black) to very light (white) is known as the ____________.
3. Black, white and grey or one colour mixed with black and white when used in a tonal picture is ____________.
4. The 3D quality of the subject matter is called ____________.
5. The use of a pencil in drawing when areas are blocked in to show the effect of light and dark and to capture the form of the subject matter is ____________.
6. The variation of tone in a picture is called ____________.
7. A large variation of tone in a picture is called ____________.
8. A small variation of tone in a picture is called ____________.
9. Generally light in tone is ____________.
10. Generally dark in tone is ____________.
11. The very small area of the lightest tone, usually white, in the subject matter of a picture is called a ____________.
12. A type of shading using lines. The fine parallel lines are placed side by side to create an illusion of tone called ____________.
13. A type of shading using criss-cross lines to create an illusion of tone. This is called ____________.

Name ..................................................Class.........................

Return Date..........................................................